[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I returned the call of Mr. Robert Blum, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, to Mr. Harry Little. In response to Blum's question, told him our research staff is looking for additional documents concerning OSS activities in Indochina at the end of World War II, but have identified none as yet. He thanked me and said he would call early next week and come out to finish the review and selection of the OSS Indochina documents that he scanned earlier. He made no mention of declassification of the documents that he selected for declassification concerning [REDACTED] Mr. Little has been advised.
